It is stated that the premises were sold subject to the first mortgage and the plaintiff seeks a foreclosure on the mortgage. He asks for a judgment in the sum of $387.49 and $35 attorneys' fees.

President's Cabinet Will Consider Suffrage

Washington, Dec. 6.—President Wilson today told 300 delegates of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage that he would soon discuss with his cabinet the subject of the federal amendment granting women the ballot.

"The president's announcement followed the remarks of Frances Jelliffe, cross country traveller hearing a suffrage petition.

"We come from the west, 4,000,000," she said. "Half of the people of this country are politically and industrially enslaved. You have spoken as a citizen. We now want you to speak as our president."

Sarah Bard Field called the executive's attention to the fact that he "like an great man" had changed his "mind on other subjects, citing his last year's position on preparedness compared to this year's.

Replying to the suffragists plea that he embody in his message a favorable recommendation toward suffrage, the president called attention to the fact that he had completed the document.

Then he added: "I hope that I will always have an open mind on such questions and I shall take the greatest pleasure in conferring with my colleagues regarding this."

This promise encouraged the suffragists somewhat in view of the fact that previously the president has answered such pleas with the statement that he regarded the suffrage question one which the states could settle for themselves.

CROWLEY ARRESTED CHARGE IS CONSPIRACY

Witnesses May Identify Him As Visitor to Their Ship at Seattle

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—Upon charges that he conspired to destroy by fire and dynamite, munitions ships bound to the allies, C. C. Crowley was re-arrested here today. The new arrest is under a warrant similar to that upon which Baron George Wilhelm Von Brincken, German army officer, was arrested Saturday night. The first warrant charged Crowley only with conspiracy to violate United States laws.

Bonds were fixed at $5,000 making a total of $10,000.

Other developments today in the alleged bomb plots were:

Arrival of Louis Boyle, pilot, and R. L. Harris, stoker of the fire ship Sacoquille, Seattle, to testify concerning Crowley's alleged presence on their ship either before or after explosion of a munitions barge at Seattle.

Arrival of Sam Murphy, a Utah miner, to testify concerning an alleged "feeler" sent by Crowley in a letter, asking about getting Murphy to do a "job" of blowing up a Hercules Powder plant in Utah.

Charges by Von Brincken's attorney that the German arrest has been traced direct to orders from Secretary of State.

The grand jury met this afternoon (2 p. m.) to hear more witnesses. In the meantime, "Coke and Har" were asked to identify Crowley as the man who went aboard ship.

The plan was to put them before the grand jury if their identification were satisfactory.

Meantime new United States justice department investigators continued on the case Chief Moffitt of the local United States secret service bureau assistant adviser; and members of the W. A. Mondell detective operatives were slated to give early evidence to the grand jury concerning Von Brincken's recent moves.

May Arrest Others.

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—New arrests in the alleged bomb conspiracy of Baron George Wilhelm Von Brincken, C. C. Crowley and L. J. Smith this week seemed today to be inevitable.

With the arrest of Von Brincken, the German army officer, Saturday night on a direct charge of plotting to destroy munitions ships and plants by "fire and dynamite," the government felt today that it had taken a long step toward uncovering a conspiracy more far reaching and startling than any anti-ally activities thus far brought to light.

The federal grand jury was slated to resume its sitting this afternoon.

L. J. Smith, informer, it was expected, would give new evidence. In addition, a number of important witnesses were on hand in an effort to link Von Brincken and Crowley more closely than thus far revealed, with the alleged conspiracy.

German Consul Franz Bopp may not testify.

Meanwhile officials hunted for the woman at whose house Smith roomed while in San Francisco. They were not entirely satisfied that Smith had told all he might concerning his companions in this city.

Raleigh Faulkner, Tacoma prisoner, too, may give evidence against Crowley.

The whereabouts of Robert Capello, North Coast steamship agent, is still a mystery, but reports indicate he has left his place of hiding on an interned German vessel Ottawa.

Funeral services will be held at the family home near Airline Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with burial in the Smith cemetery at Monmouth.

CORNER—In Portland, Ore., Saturday, December 4, 1915, Mrs. E. L. Corner. The body arrived in the city today accompanied by relatives. Services were held this afternoon at the parlors of Webb & Cough, with burial in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

GERMANY ASKS WHY.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Secretary of State Lansing this afternoon announced receipt of a message from Germany, through Ambassador Gerard, in reply to the request for recall of German Attaché Hoy and Von Pappen.

While the secretary did not say so, it is believed the message made a counter request for reasons for America's action.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Insist on having Hood's.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF LABOR SUSPECTED

Sensational Disclosures Involving Several Congressmen Are Promised

Washington, Dec. 6.—The National Council of Labor, from which President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor recently withdrew is under official scrutiny.

Sensational disclosures, involving present and former congressmen and familiar capital lobbyists are rumored to be at hand.

Whether German interests financed the council's pro-German propaganda is the principal point of the inquiry. Officials, however, are uncertain whether the council engaged in unlawful work or merely unneutral activities, which the present laws do not report.

David Lamar, known as the "wolf of Wall street," Representative Buchanan, an labor congressman from Illinois, former Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania and ex-Congressman Robert Fowler, of Illinois, are members.

Authorities in New York have been ordered to place their evidence before a federal grand jury. They will prove the connection between the German government's $175,000 fund and the council's alleged strike activities.

Buchanan and Fowler both deny pro-German support was given.

Crew of Chinese Cruiser Mutinies

Pekin, Dec. 6.—With the revolution and mutiny of anti-monarchists aboard the Chinese cruiser Chao-Ho suppressed, the government announced today its intention of executing the mutineers. The Chao-Ho suppressed, the government announced today its intention of executing the mutineers. The Chao-Ho is now in government hands.

The mutineers fired at two other warships and attempted to blast the arsenal while off Shanghai. This was put down by quick action on the part of the government vessels.

Details of the uprising are lacking, but the plan to mutiny apparently was made some time in advance of the plotting. Though a number of shots were thrown from the mutiny vessel, practically no damage was done, though some of the shells landed in the foreign consensious.

It Was Outside Rebels.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Explaining the mutiny aboard the Chinese training ship Chao-ho, the Chinese legation today said that rebels from the foreign settlement boarded her while most of the crew was on shore leave. After firing two other warships and the arsenal, the rebels fled when they saw the danger of being sunk. No cause for the mutiny was assigned.

Warried Scotchman Lost Her Citizenship

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Gordon Mackenzie, wife of the well known San Francisco singer and club man, may not vote at California elections.

The supreme court of the United States today decided she was not an American citizen having forfeited her citizenship when she married Mackenzie. The Scotch singer was never naturalized and is still a subject of King George.

Mrs. Mackenzie started the suit which ended in Washington Monday when she was refused the right to register by Registrar Zemansky recently.

The decision in the Mackenzie case is far reaching in that it establishes a legal precedent under a condition created by woman suffrage that will guide the courts of the country in the future.

ELK LODGE HOLDS MEMORIAL SERVICES

Services Simple But Beautiful and Impressive—Address a Masterly One

The lights of 53 candles were dimmed as the roll of departed Elks was called at the annual memorial services held at the Grand lodge, No. 336, B. P. O. E., at the Salem opera house yesterday afternoon. Five of the members who have been called by death since the last assembly at the memorial services and whose names were called are John Minto, Harry P. Minto, Will E. Jones, Jos. Harris and F. E. Newberry.

The Elks assembled in the Odd Fellows' lodge and watched in a body to the strains of memorial music, played by the Elks' orchestra, to the auditorium of the Grand, where the services were presided over by the Exalted Ruler, A. J. Anderson.

The address of the day was by Hon. Fred W. Willson, of The Dalles, who spoke eloquently of the annual services in which the Elk lodges throughout the country remember those who have passed to the great beyond. The eulogy was delivered by Walter E. Keyes.

The musical features of the program were the solos, "Elegie" and "My Task," by Mrs. W. Carleton Smith, and "How Many Hired Servants," from "The Prodigal Son," and "There is a Land," by J. Ross Fargo, of Portland.

The memorial committee consisted of H. J. Wiedmer, Chas. K. Denison, O. J. Meyers, E. A. Kurtz and Frank Light.

Schedule Arranged For Basket Ball Games

Coach Mathews of Willamette university returned Saturday evening from the conference meeting of the athletic councils of the California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho colleges and universities which met in Portland last week.

While there Coach Mathews arranged a basketball schedule tentatively that will be the heaviest schedule Willamette will ever have held. Four of the strongest conference teams agreed to play Willamette at Salem when they make their trips this winter. This will give Salem basketball fans an opportunity to see the best teams of the northwest in action on a local floor. The schedule as it stands now will be as follows:

December 7—W. U. Alumni vs. Varsity.
December 16—Chemawa vs. W. U. at Salem.
January 12—University of California vs. W. U. at Salem.
January 28—O. A. C. vs. W. U. at Salem.

February 3—University of Washington vs. W. U. at Salem.
February 10—University of Idaho vs. W. U. at Salem.
February 26—O. A. C. vs. W. U. at Corvallis.

Date unfixed—Multnomah club vs. W. U. at Portland.

Coach Mathews has outlined a trip throughout Washington and western Idaho, which will give possibilities of games with the Puget Sound university at Tacoma; Tacoma Y. M. C. A.; U. of Wash., at Seattle; Gonzaga university, Spokane; Washington State college, Pullman; U. of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; and Whitman college, Walla Walla. This trip is not settled but the coach is desirous of arranging a trip for his team as he will have a conference class team this year and Willamette will be in a position to meet the strongest teams.

The men who are out for basketball and from which the team will later be picked are: Shisler, captain; Brooks, Jewett, Flegel, Adams, Bagley, Proctor, Irvine, Tobie, Jackson, D. Adams, Harris, Hendricks and Esteb. From this number Coach Mathews will be able to select a strong team as all of last year's team are back with the exception of Crawford, who played star ball at a guard position. The game tomorrow evening will help to settle who will go

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Chapel was dismissed this morning and the student body went in a body to the First M. E. church to attend the funeral of Mrs. Anna Belle McCaddam, mother of Miss Leila McCaddam, of the sophomore class, and Glen V. McCaddam, who graduated last year.

The many friends of these two young people extend their sympathy to them in their hour of sadness.

Prof. Wallace McMurray will give the fifth number of his lecture course tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Eaton hall. The series of lectures on modern drama is awakening considerable interest in the works of modern dramatists, and is also disclosing the fact to many who had heretofore dis-believed that modern literature was producing work that would become permanent.

Dr. Carl E. Doney, president of Willamette university, is traveling through eastern Oregon and western Idaho in the interests of education giving addresses at a number of cities, and advancing the interest of Willamette in the various high schools. Dr. Doney will return the latter part of this week from his trip.

Put On Her Best and Then Killed Herself

Portland, Ore., Dec. 6.—After making a careful toilet and donning her most becoming clothes, Mrs. Jennie M. Corless, aged 41, Doney, wife of a grocer, committed suicide today by shooting herself through the stomach with a revolver. She had been in ill health.

Mrs. Corless attempted to shoot herself in a like manner two years ago but the cartridge in her pistol failed to explode.

MOTHER OF TWENTY DEAD

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Emaline Harkins, mother of twenty children, is dead here today at the age of 74. Death was due to heart trouble. Eleven of her children are living.
